

THE HEATHER TRUST
Promoting Integrated Moorland Management

Deputy Director

The Heather Trust seeks a Deputy Director with a strong background in upland management, but particularly moorland management, to assist with the development of the Trust, with the support of existing staff.

The Trust is based in Dumfries but working from a separate base within reach of Dumfries may be acceptable. Part-time work might be considered.

This post is likely to suit someone with a strong interest in the environment, coupled with good rural business management skills and a demonstrable track record of working with a wide range of people and organisations.

The successful applicant will have a high level of computer literacy, and is likely to possess good entrepreneurial skills and a proven ability to generate income.

Remuneration will be commensurate with the successful candidate's experience and is likely to include a bonus element in recognition of the additional income generated each year.

Apply in writing to The Director providing details of what you could bring to the position, enclosing your CV. Closing date: 12 noon, 22nd December 2008
